From the President ...

Dear Friends & Musical Theatre Lovers,

Welcome to our first Newsletter for 2007! We look forward to another exciting Competition later in the year and to seeing a wealth of new talent come through.

Awareness of the Competition continues to grow in regional areas and throughout Queensland in general. Our website has also been an outstanding success bringing us in line with other theatrical groups.

Now it's time once again to call on more volunteers to help out on the Executive and Sub-Committees to ensure the continued growth and success of this wonderful and unique annual event.

Please email us at info@bmtc.org.au if you can help out. Your rewards will be great as you share your enthusiasm and passion for musical theatre and enjoy the fruits of your labour when the 2007 Competition unfolds.

On behalf of the Organising Committee, I wish you all well in your preparation for this year's event and thank you once again for your continuing support and valued friendships over the past 10 years!

Happy New Year Everyone!
Kindest Regards

Janette Kircher

Sponsors

Time is eating into the year again and it won't be long before the Brisbane Musical Theatre Competition is up and running and offering performances that you can't and will not see anywhere else.

As you may know there are not a lot of outlets in Brisbane for Musical Theatre Artists to display their talent so the Competition ensures that the best will come and participate.

The Brisbane Musical Theatre Competition is organised by a completely volunteer group who, spurred on by last year's success, have now raised their sights to organise a bigger and better event and to maybe go state wide but this can't be done without the help of generous sponsors.

Here is the opportunity for existing and new sponsors to hop on board - to grow with us and to reap the benefit of new customers and to gain valuable exposure within Brisbane's Musical and Artistic community.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch with me or any members of the Association to offer your generous sponsorship.
